Introduction

1. All schools and education settings have a duty to promote and safeguard the welfare of children who are students.

Governing bodies and proprietors should ensure there are procedures in place to manage concerns/allegations, against staff (including volunteers) that might indicate they would pose a risk of harm to children. The Harm Test

The procedure documented within this policy must be followed in any case where it is alleged that a teacher, supply staff, or other member of staff or a volunteer at the school has:

Para 211.

- Behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child;
- Possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child;
- Behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates he or she may pose a risk of harm to children; or
- Behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

This applies to members of staff, supply staff and volunteers who are currently working in any school regardless of whether the current setting is where the alleged abuse took place.

All staff members in the school are made aware and reminded of this policy as part of their induction. As part of the annual safeguarding training staff will be asked to revisit this policy and refresh their awareness and understanding this may be recorded as part of the annual Section 175 audit.

How concerns arise

2. Concerns about possible abuse of children by staff will usually arise in one of two ways, either;
  - A direct allegation by a pupil or third party, for example a parent
  - An observation by a member of staff that the behaviour of a colleague is inappropriate or actually abusive.

In either case the concern must be recorded and reported to the Principal immediately unless the allegations are about the Principal in which case, it must be reported to the Chair of Governors. Contact details of the Chair of Governors will be available via the school office. If the Principal is absent, the allegation will be reported to the Vice Principal, or a member of SLT in the absence of a Vice Principal.

As this is a statutory duty, it is expected that all members of staff in school, where they have concerns, will report them in accordance with this policy.

Staff should also consider the school child protection procedures and if a child has been harmed a referral should be made into the MASH (Multi Agency Safeguarding Hub).

Once an allegation is made, the Allegations Management Process should be followed. (See Allegations Management Process flow chart Appendix 1)

Initial Action

3. In order to proceed, the Principal or Chair of Governors will ensure that they have a full understanding of the nature of the allegation made by a member of staff or third party, only speaking to the child if it is unavoidable or it is the child making the allegation.

The procedures for dealing with allegations need to be applied with common sense and judgement. Many cases may well either not meet the criteria set out, or may do so without warranting consideration of either the police or children's social care.

As part of the Schools Safeguarding Service Level Agreement (SLA) they may choose to seek advice and support from the Local Authority Education Safeguarding Officer.

No one in the school should investigate the incident. Interviewing either, those directly involved or any witnesses could prejudice a fair hearing at a later date.

The Principal or Chair of Governors will simply establish that:

- An allegation has been made
- The general nature of the allegation - What happened
- When and where the incident is alleged to have occurred
- Who was involved - including their full name, address and date of birth
- Any other persons present/CCTV

The matter will not be discussed with the person who is the subject of the allegation at this stage.

This information can be recorded on the template initial record of concern sheet (See Appendix 2)

Allegations against a teacher who is no longer teaching should be referred to the police. Historical allegations of abuse should also be referred to the police.

Consultation and Referral

4. Once the nature of the allegation has been established the Principal or Chair of Governors (Case Manager) should determine if it meets any of the criteria set out in section 1 above. If so, the Case Manager should immediately discuss the allegation with the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) on the same day.

In Knowsley the LADO can be contacted on 443 4077 or e-mail cpconference@knowsley.gov.uk

It is important to ensure any allegation is taken seriously and advice can be sought by contacting the Education Safeguarding Officer with further support available via the schools safeguarding SLA.

If it is unclear whether the threshold for referral into the LADO process has been reached, the Case Manager can consult with the LADO before a formal referral is made.

At this stage advice should be sought from the LADO with regards to informing the person subject to the allegation, that an allegation has been made.

Initial consideration of the allegation

5. The purpose of the initial discussion is for the LADO and the case manager to consider the nature, content and context of the allegation and agree a course of action. This will include a discussion to determine whether police involvement is necessary. The discussion may establish that the allegation is not demonstrably false or unfounded.

If the parents/carers of the child concerned are not already aware of the allegation the LADO will also discuss how and by whom they should be informed.

There may be some circumstances where the school may advise the parents/carers of an incident involving their child straight away, for example, if the child has been injured while at school or in a school related activity, and requires medical treatment.

Para. 222

The initial sharing of information and evaluation may lead to a decision that no further action is to be taken in regard to the individual facing the allegation or concern; in which case this decision and a justification for it should be recorded by both the case manager and the designated officer (s), and agreement reached on what information should be put in writing to the individual concerned and by whom. The case manager should then consider with the designated officer (s) what action should follow both in respect of the individual and those who made the initial allegation.

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

The case manager will usually inform the accused person about the allegation as soon as possible after consulting with the LADO. However, where a strategy discussion is needed, the decision to inform the individual will be deferred until after consultation with the police has taken place, and there is agreement about what information can be disclosed to the person.

Once the individual has been informed of the allegation, and if they are a member of a union or a professional association, they will be advised to contact that organisation.

Strategy Meeting /Evaluation with the police

6. If the allegation is not demonstrably false or unfounded, a formal referral will be made to the LADO and in accordance with 'Working Together to Safeguard Children, 2019' a meeting and strategy discussion will be convened.

There may be up to three strands in the consideration of an allegation:

- A police investigation of a possible criminal offence
- Enquiries and assessment under section 47 of the Children Act 1989 if a child is in need of protection or under section 17 of the Children Act 1989 if the child appears to be in need of services
- Consideration by the employer of disciplinary action in respect of the individual

The case manager will attend any strategy meeting, unless there are good reasons not to do so, and provide details about the circumstances and context of the allegation and the pupil and member of staff concerned.

There are five defined terms used when determining the outcome of allegation investigations.

Para. 220

- Substantiated: there is sufficient evidence to prove the allegation;
- Malicious: there is sufficient evidence to disprove the allegation and there has been a deliberate act to deceive;
- False: there is sufficient evidence to disprove the allegation;
- Unsubstantiated: there is insufficient evidence to either to prove or disprove the allegation. The term, therefore, does not imply guilt or innocence.
- Unfounded: to reflect cases where there is no evidence or proper basis which supports the allegation being made

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

Suspension

7. An assessment of the possible risk of harm to children posed by an accused person must be undertaken and managed. This should be considered in relation to the child or children involved in the allegation, and any other children in the accused individual's home, work or community life. Suspension should not be an automatic response when an allegation is reported, all options to avoid suspension should be considered prior to taking that step.

Para. 224

If the allegation is about physical contact, the strategy discussion or initial evaluation with the police should take into account that teachers and other school and college staff are entitled to use reasonable force to control or restrain children in certain circumstances, including dealing with disruptive behaviour.

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

Suspension will be considered in any case where;

- There is cause to suspect a child is at risk of significant harm
- The allegation warrants formal investigation by the police
- There is a likelihood that evidence may be tampered with, or witnesses intimidated
- The allegation is so serious that it might be grounds for dismissal

The case manager will consider carefully whether the circumstances of a case warrant a person being suspended from contact with the children until the allegation is resolved. In deciding whether to suspend a member of staff, the case manager will consider advice given at the strategy meeting and any risk assessments.

Para. 252

...Based on assessment of risk, the following alternatives should be considered by the case manager before suspending a member of staff:

- redeployment within the school or college so that the individual does not have direct contact with the child or children concerned;
- providing an assistant to be present when the individual has contact with children;
- redeploying to alternative work in the school or college so the individual does not have unsupervised access to children;
- moving the child or children to classes where they will not come into contact with the member of staff, making it clear that this is not a punishment and parents have been consulted; or
- temporarily redeploying the member of staff to another role in a different location, for example to an alternative school or college or work for the local authority or academy trust.

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

Action where the police or Local Authority investigation is not necessary

8. If the complaint or allegation is such that;

- It is clear that a criminal and/or child protection enquiries are not necessary, or
- The strategy discussion or initial evaluation decides that is the case

the case manager will discuss the next steps with the LADO.

In such circumstances the options open, depend on the nature and the circumstances of the allegation, and the evidence and information available. The possible outcome will range from taking no further action to conducting formal disciplinary action that could lead to dismissal or a lesser formal warning.

Action where police or local authority investigation is necessary

9. The police or Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) should inform the Case Manager and LADO straight away;

- It is decided to close an investigation without arrest or charge, or
- It has been decided not to prosecute after the person has been charged, or
- When a criminal investigation and any subsequent trial is complete

In those circumstances the LADO will discuss in conjunction with the Case Manager, and H.R. representatives whether any further action, including disciplinary action is appropriate and, if so, how to proceed.

Referral to DfE – Disclosure and Barring Service

10. If the allegation is substantiated and the person is dismissed, the school ceases to use the persons services, the person resigns, or otherwise ceases to provide his or her services, the LADO should discuss with the Case Manager and their H.R. advisor whether a referral will be made to the DBS for consideration of inclusion on the barred list is required. If the substantiated allegation is in relation to a member of teaching staff whether to refer the matter to the Teaching Regulation Agency (TRA) to consider prohibiting the individual from teaching.

Para. 170

Schools and colleges have a legal duty to refer to the DBS anyone who has harmed, or poses a risk of harm, to a child or vulnerable adult where:

- The harm test is satisfied in respect of that individual;
- The individual has received a caution or conviction for a relevant offence, or If there is a reason to believe that the individual has committed a listed relevant offence; and
- The individual has been removed from working (paid or unpaid) in regulated activity, or would have been removed had they not left.

Supporting those involved

11. Employers have a duty of care to their employees. They should act to manage and minimise the stress inherent in the allegations process. The Case Manager should appoint a named representative to keep the person who is the subject of the allegation informed of the progress of the case and consider what other support is appropriate for the individual.

Access to Occupational Health services including counselling services should be provided and if the person is suspended, the Case Manager should ensure the individual is informed about developments at school.

In relation to an allegation that has been brought by a child, parent or carer, the deliberations of a disciplinary hearing and the information taken into account in reaching a decision will not normally be disclosed, but the parents/carers should be told the outcome.

In cases where a child may have suffered significant harm, or there may be a criminal prosecution, children's social care services, or the police as appropriate, should consider what support the child or children involved may need.

Confidentiality

12. Any investigation is done in confidence. Every effort is made to maintain confidentiality and guard against unwanted publicity while an allegation is being investigated or considered.

Para. 231

Parents and carers should also be made aware of the requirement to maintain confidentiality about any allegations made against teachers whilst investigations are ongoing as set out in section 141F of the Education Act 2002. If parents or carers wish to apply to the court to reporting restrictions removed, they should seek legal advice.

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

No one in the school may provide any information to the press or media that might identify an individual who is under investigation, unless and until the person is charged with a criminal offence.

No one in the school may disclose any information to anyone about the details of an investigation, as this may prejudice the right of the person under investigation to a fair hearing.

Para. 234

The legislation imposing restrictions makes clear that "publication" of material that may lead to the identification of the teacher who is the subject of the allegation is prohibited. "Publication" includes "any speech, writing, relevant programme or other communication in whatever form, which is addressed to the public at large or any section of the public". This means that a parent who, for example, published details of the allegation on a social networking site would be in breach of the reporting restrictions (if what was published could lead to the identification of the teacher by members of the public).

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

School or college makes every effort to maintain confidentiality and guard against unwanted publicity while an allegation is being investigated or considered.

Para. 236

The case manager should take advice from the designated officer, police and children's social care services to agree the following:

- Who needs to know, and importantly, exactly what information can be shared;
- How to manage speculation, leaks and gossip;
- What, if any, information can be reasonably given to the wider community to reduce speculation; and
- How to manage press interest if, and when, it should arise.

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

13. Where a person under investigation tenders his or her resignation, or ceases to provide their services, the investigation into the allegation will still need to be completed in accordance with the guidance.

It is important that every effort is made to reach a conclusion in all cases of allegations bearing on the safety or welfare of children, including any which the person concerned refused to cooperate with the process.

The school will not enter into "settlement agreements" by which if a person agrees to resign, the school agrees not to pursue disciplinary action and both parties agree a form of words to be used in any future reference

Record Keeping

14. If anyone in the school has any concerns regarding the behaviour or conduct of a member of staff, they must record and report the information to the Principal or Chair of Governors.

The Principal/ Chair of Governors will ensure that;

- A clear and comprehensive summary of any allegations made (See Appendix 2)
- Details of how the allegation was followed up and resolved
- A note of any action taken and decisions reached, is kept on a person's confidential personnel file, and a copy provided to the person concerned

The purpose of the record is to enable accurate information to be given in response to any future request for a reference. At the conclusion of the investigation, if the person under investigation is exonerated, the school will write to the person confirming this, and send a copy to the LADO and place a copy on the person's personnel file.

Details of allegations found to have been malicious should be removed from the personnel records.

For all other allegations, it is important that a clear comprehensive summary of the allegation, details of how the allegation was followed up and resolved, and a note of any action taken and decisions reached. This is kept on the confidential personnel file of the accused, and a copy provided to the person concerned.

Cases in which an allegation was proven to be false, unsubstantiated or malicious will not be included in employer references.

Timescales

15. The school will endeavour to follow the timescales set out in the guidance for such investigations, as long as it is consistent with a fair and thorough investigation. However, it is acknowledged that allegations of a serious and complex nature are unlikely to be resolved quickly.

Oversight and monitoring

16. The school will work closely with the LADO who has overall responsibility for oversight of the procedures for dealing with allegations.

The school will cooperate in supplying statistical information required by the LADO for DfE returns and Local Safeguarding Children Board monitoring purposes.

Action on the conclusion of a case

17. In cases where it is decided in the conclusion of the case that the person who has been suspended can return to work, the school will consider how best to facilitate that.

Actions in respect of malicious allegations

18. In the rare event that an allegation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious the Principal will consider whether any disciplinary action is appropriate against the person who made it, if they are part of the school community.

The police will be asked to consider whether any action might be appropriate against the person responsible if they are outside the school community.

Allegations concerning supply staff not directly employed by the school

19. In some cases, the school will need to consider an allegation against an individual, not directly employed by them, and where the school disciplinary procedures do not fully apply. For example, supply teachers provided by an employment agency or business.

In these cases the school should ensure that although not the employer, all allegations are dealt with properly.

Para. 215

In no circumstances should a school or college decide to cease to use a supply teacher due to safeguarding concerns, without finding out the facts and liaising with the local authority designated officer (LADO) to determine a suitable outcome. Governing bodies and proprietors should discuss with the agency whether it is appropriate to suspend the supply teacher, or redeploy them to another part of the school, whilst they carry out their investigation.

Keeping Children Safe in Education, September 2020

In managing allegations made against supply staff the following should be considered;

- Agencies should be fully involved and co-operate in any enquiries from the LADO, Police or Children's Social Care
- School will usually take the lead as they have direct access to children or other school staff
- Supply staff, although not employed by the school, are under the supervision, direction and control of the governing body when working in a school
- Supply staff, should be advised to contact their trade union representative if they have one, or a colleague for support
- The Allegations management meeting which, arranged by the LADO, should address issues such as information sharing, to ensure that any previous concerns or allegations known to the agency are taken into account by the school during the investigation.

It is imperative that when using an agency for supply staff, schools should inform the agency of its process for managing allegations. This may also include inviting the agencies human resource manager to the meetings so they can be kept up to date with information regarding its policies.
