

Appreciation Friday – 28th April 2023

(17 nominations)

Year 7

Danny H – Danny works hard every lesson and is a pleasure to teach.

Year 8

Kamran B – Excellent effort in this week's English classes by demonstrating good understanding of the characters in Hamlet.

Malak N – Excellent resilience shown in English this week when given speeches from Hamlet to analyse.

Evie H – Fantastic understanding demonstrated in English this week regarding the characters of Hamlet.

Ava F – For being helpful every lesson.

Kaitlyn F – Amazing helper in computer science - worked really hard helping others and myself! Well done excellent app inventor in the making!!

Year 9

9W3 – To all members of 9W3 (English) for making a superb start to our Shakespeare topic this week despite some of them finding the subject matter initially quite challenging? They've shown open-mindedness and resilience leading to perceptive and creative responses during class discussion.

Kyle H, Amelia C, Claudia S F and Lewis S – Excellent work and superb engagement in our study of Shakespearean monologues. Despite the challenging material, all have risen to the challenge and really been working hard to ensure their green zones are analytical, precise and perceptive. Well done!

James S – Kindness shown when another pupil was injured on the yard at lunchtime on Tuesday.

Daniel P – Complete change in attitude and work also for their music ability and playing piano for me – amazing!!

Ethan C – Has shown a tremendous attitude and skill level in many different activities over the academic year! Their work rate and enthusiasm is infectious.

Ryan S – Has shown an impeccable ATL all year and their confidence and skill levels are rising week by week. I am so proud of the way that they have broken into the extremely successful year 9 boys football team this year and has become an intracule part of the team.

Year 10

Miles H - For giving up their time to help me complete a task ready for the staff meeting.

Year 11

Mason S, Evie L & Tammy S – These pupils are giving their all this half term - we love to see it!

11H3/EN – As we're getting close to the exams, some of the pupils in this class are really hammering their revision. Well done!

Ben M – Excellent resilience and effort shown last week when working on Unseen Poetry examples for the English Literature exam.

Year 11 Art, Graphics and Photography pupils – The Art, Graphics and Photography Exams have taken place and the pupils involved have approached these with maturity and shown great resilience throughout the practical exam. We would like to thank all the pupils involved for their efforts - Well Done!