

Appreciation Friday – 10th March 2023

Year 7

7HN2/SC – Pupils were an absolute credit to themselves and the year group this week when I covered them for their Science lesson on Tuesday - well done everyone!

Heidi S – Excellent attitude to learning.

Henry D – For always brightening up my day and putting a smile on my face. Thank you!

7WN1 – This class were awesome today - they all worked hard and really applied themselves to the observational drawing and watercolour task – well done!

7AL2/GEOG – Working hard to complete their extended writing task - well done!

7AL3 – Fantastic lesson, working hard to complete extended writing task - well done!

Year 8

Tyler H – A huge improvement in their handwriting and the presentation of their work.

Georgia E – Excellent attitude to learning.

8HL1/HI – 8H1 have been working superbly on our enquiry into the Industrial revolution. They have studied many aspects and completed a Big Read on an extract from the 'Her Benny', a story about Liverpool street children from the 19th Century. They linked in with their knowledge to produce an extended piece of writing and improved their work with detailed student responses. Well done 8H1!

8HL2/EN – Excellent attitude to learning demonstrated in cover lesson.

Alfie S – Worked brilliantly with their dictionary to find words in English and Spanish. They worked independently and with determination once they had mastered the technique.

Scarlett P – Scarlett is always really helpful in lessons.

Jack K – Their knowledge of the Russian revolution has provided invaluable knowledge to support our study of Animal Farm.

Maddie J – Always polite and complimentary.

Timi O – They provided multiple members of their English class with pens so they could complete their work limiting disruption – thank you.

Year 9

Shea M – They are on the excellence path for next year and is now working above and beyond in Spanish to make sure they do well in preparation for next year's GCSE Spanish course. ¡Bien hecho Shea!

Jovany E, Luke M, Jack P, Cayden C and Oliver T – Incredible work over the past week's lessons in English. Perceptive and intelligent points made regarding the character of Victor Frankenstein. Very impressed with all of the pupils and their engagement with a very challenging text. Well done!

Year 9 boys football team – They played fantastic today in their quarter final match winning through to the semi-finals, amazing effort – they did themselves and the school proud.
